Compassion A Reflection On The

Compassion is not pity or just feeling sorry for someone in pain often accompanied by an uncritical, sentimental benevolence. Compassion means to endure something with another person, to put ourselves in someone else's shoes, to feel her pain as though it were our own and to enter generously into his point of view.

A REFLECTION ON COMPASSION 1

Compassion, no longer merely an eraser of human mistakes, is a force of prayer and action -- the expression of God's love for us and our love for God and one another. Compassion is a book that says no to a compassion of guilt and failure and yes to a compassionate love that pervades our spirit and moves us to action.
