Routledge Critical Thinkers Series by Graham Allen

"Mikhail Bakhtin was one of the twentieth century's most influential literary theorists. This accessible introduction to his thought begins with the questions 'Why Bakhtin?' and 'Who was Bakhtin?', before dealing in detail with his ideas on authorship and subjecthood, language, dialogism, heteroglossia and the novel, the chronotope, and the carnivalesque.

Mikhail Bakhtin (Book, 2015) [WorldCat.org]

This article explores Madeline Miller's Circe from the perspective of Bakhtin's concept of the chronotope, the inseparability of space and time in fiction. The article focuses on the chronotopes of the road, the idyll and the threshold in the novel, and how these intersect with its themes of gender and immortality. ... Routledge Critical ...
